ARTICLE I THE MERGER

Section 1.1 The Merger. In accordance with Section 251(g) of the DGCL and subject to and upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Mergeco shall, at the Effective Time, be merged with and into the Company, the separate corporate existence of Mergeco shall cease and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation. The Company as the surviving corporation after the Merger is hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Surviving Corporation." At the Effective Time, the effect of the Merger shall be as provided in Section 259 of the DGCL.

Section 1.2 Effective Time. The Merger shall become effective upon the filing, after the date hereof and on or before December 31, 1996, of a copy of this Agreement with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the time of such filing being referred to herein as the "Effective Time").

Section 1.3 Certificate of Incorporation. From and after the Effective Time the Composite Certificate of Incorporation of the Company, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided by law; provided, however, that, from and after the Effective Time:

- (a) Article One thereof shall be amended so as to read in its entirety as follows:

"First: The name of this Corporation is Halliburton Energy Services, Inc."

- (b) Article Fourth thereof shall be amended so as to read in its entirety as follows:

"Fourth: The aggregate number of shares which the Corporation shall have authority to issue shall be one thousand (1,000), consisting of one thousand (1,000) shares of Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share. No shares of the previously designated Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock having been issued, such series is hereby terminated and all matters set forth in this certificate of incorporation with respect to such series are hereby eliminated from this certificate of incorporation."

- (c) A new Article Seventeenth shall be added thereto which shall be and read in its entirety as follows:

"Seventeenth: Any act or transaction by or involving the Corporation that requires for its adoption under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or its certificate of incorporation the approval of the stockholders of the Corporation shall, by virtue of this reference to Section 251(g) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, require, in addition, the approval of the stockholders of Halliburton Company, a Delaware corporation (formerly Halliburton Hold Co.), or any successor thereto by merger, so long as such corporation or its successor is the ultimate parent, directly or indirectly, of this Corporation, by the same vote that is required by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and/or the certificate of incorporation of this Corporation. For the purposes of this Article Seventeenth, the term "parent" shall mean a corporation that owns, directly or indirectly, at least a majority of the outstanding capital stock of this Corporation entitled to vote in the election of directors of this Corporation without regard to the occurrence of any contingency."

Section 1.4 By-laws. From and after the Effective Time, the By-laws of Mergeco, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the By-laws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided therein or by applicable law.

Section 1.5 Directors. The directors of Mergeco immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the initial directors of the Surviving Corporation and will hold office from the Effective Time until their successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified in the manner provided in the Certificate of Incorporation and the By-laws of the Surviving Corporation or as otherwise provided by law.

Section 1.6 Officers. The officers of Mergeco immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the initial officers of the Surviving Corporation and will hold office from the Effective Time until their successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified in the manner provided in the Certificate of Incorporation and the By-laws of the Surviving Corporation or as otherwise provided by law.

Section 1.7 Additional Actions. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the parties hereto shall take all such reasonable and lawful action as may be necessary or appropriate in order to effectuate the Merger. If, at any time after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any deeds, bills of sale, assignments, assurances or any other actions or things are necessary or desirable to vest, perfect or confirm, of record or otherwise, in the Surviving Corporation its right, title or interest in, to or under any of the rights, properties or assets of either of Mergeco or the Company acquired or to be acquired by the Surviving Corporation as a result of, or in connection with, the Merger or otherwise to carry out this Agreement, the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be authorized to execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of each of Mergeco and the Company, all such deeds, bills of sale, assignments and assurances and to take and do, in the name and on behalf of each of Mergeco and the Company or otherwise, all such other actions and things as may be necessary or desirable to vest, perfect or confirm any and all right, title and interest in, to and under such rights, properties or assets in the Surviving Corporation or otherwise to carry out this Agreement.

Section 1.8 Conversion of Securities. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Holdco, Mergeco, the Company or the holder of any of the following securities:

(a) Each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and thereafter represent one duly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of Holdco Common Stock.

(b) Each share of Company Common Stock issued but held by Holdco in its treasury immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and thereafter represent one duly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of Holdco Common Stock held by Holdco in its treasury immediately after the Effective Time of the Merger.

(c) Each share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Mergeco issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and thereafter represent one duly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of the Surviving Corporation.

(d) From and after the Effective Time, holders of certificates formerly evidencing Company Common Stock shall cease to have any rights as stockholders of the Company, except as provided by law; provided, however, that such holders shall have the rights set forth in Section 1.10 herein.

(b) Holdco shall, prior to the Effective Time, adopt a preferred share purchase rights plan (the "Holdco Rights Plan") substantially similar in form and substance to the Company Rights Plan and, in accordance therewith, Holdco shall, at the Effective Time but without duplication of Holdco's obligations under the Holdco Rights Plan, issue to each holder of Holdco Common Stock issued pursuant hereto one preferred share purchase right ("Holdco Purchase Right") for each share of Holdco Common Stock issued by it pursuant to Section 1.8(a) herein.

Section 1.10 No Surrender of Certificates; Stock Transfer Books. As a result of the provisions of Section 1.3 herein, in conjunction with the provisions of a certificate of amendment of certificate of incorporation of Holdco to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and to become effective immediately after the Effective Time, the corporate name of Holdco immediately following the Effective Time will be "Halliburton Company", the same name as the corporate name of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time. Accordingly, until thereafter surrendered for transfer or exchange in the ordinary course, each outstanding certificate that, immediately prior to the Effective Time, evidenced Company Common Stock shall be deemed and treated for all corporate purposes to evidence the ownership of the number of shares of Holdco Common Stock into which such shares of Company Common Stock were converted pursuant to the provisions of Sections 1.8 (a) and (b) herein. In addition, immediately after the Effective Time, each such certificate shall also evidence a number of Holdco Purchase Rights equal to the number of Company Purchase Rights evidenced thereby immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger.

ASSIGNMENT OF INVENTIONS AND COMPANY INFORMATION AGREEMENT

In consideration of my employment by OTIS ENGINEERING CORPORATION or any subsidiary thereof (hereinafter, collectively referred to as "OTIS"), I hereby agree as follows:

I. ASSIGNMENT OF INVENTIONS

- A. I agree to disclose promptly and in writing to OTIS and I hereby assign and agree to assign and bind my heirs, executors, or administrators to assign to OTIS or its designee, assigns, successors or legal representatives, any and all inventions, processes, diagrams, methods, apparatus, compositions of matter, designs, computer programs, algorithms, or any improvements thereof (all hereinafter collectively called "inventions") whatsoever discovered, conceived, and/or developed, either individually or jointly with others, during the course of my employment with OTIS, or using OTIS's time, data, facilities and/or materials, provided the subject matter is one within a field of interest of OTIS. My obligations under this paragraph apply without regard to whether an idea for an invention or a solution to a problem occurs to me on the job, at home, or elsewhere. I further agree that all such inventions are OTIS's exclusive property, whether or not protected by a patent or copyright. If OTIS is not interested in one or more of my inventions, a waiver allowing me to independently pursue such inventions may be issued by the Senior Technical Officer.
- B. Subject matter within a field of interest of OTIS includes any field of interest that has been worked on by OTIS in the past, in which there is work in progress at OTIS at the date of or during my employment with OTIS, and projects or other operations at OTIS planned for the future. It is expressly understood that this agreement does not apply to any of my patents or patent applications filed or based on inventions made prior to my employment with OTIS or to matters (other than matters within a field of interest of OTIS) which are exclusively of personal interest.
- C. I shall assist OTIS at any time during or after my employment is terminated, at OTIS's expense, in the preparation, prosecution, issuance, procurement, execution, and delivery of any disclosures, patent applications, or papers within the scope and intent of this agreement required to obtain patents in this or in other countries and in connection with such other proceedings as may be necessary to vest title thereto in OTIS, its assigns, successors, or legal representatives. If such assistance takes place after my employment is terminated, I shall be paid by OTIS at a reasonable rate for any time that I actually spend in such work at OTIS's request.

II. COMPANY INFORMATION

- A. I recognize that my position with OTIS is one of highest trust and confidence by reason of my access to and contact with the trade secrets and confidential and proprietary business information of OTIS. I shall use my best efforts and exercise utmost diligence to protect and safeguard the trade secrets and confidential or proprietary information of OTIS. As used herein, the terms "trade secrets" and "confidential information" shall include any information contained in any

"invention", as that term is defined in Section 1A hereof, together with any information obtained by me in the course of my employment which relates to OTIS's business from, or in the form of, specifications, drawings, blueprints, reproductions, computer programs, tapes, card decks and the like.

- B. Except as may be required by OTIS in connection with and during my employment with OTIS or with the express written permission of OTIS, I shall not, either during my employment with OTIS or thereafter, directly or indirectly, use for my own benefit or for the benefit of another, or disclose to another, any trade secret or confidential or proprietary information (whether or not acquired, learned, obtained or developed by myself alone or in conjunction with others) of OTIS, its customers, contractors or of others with which OTIS has a business relationship.
- C. I further agree that all memoranda, notes, records, drawings, invention documentations, materials embodying trade secrets and confidential information of OTIS, or other documents made or compiled by me or made available to me while employed by OTIS concerning any process, apparatus or products manufactured, used, developed, investigated or considered by OTIS or concerning any other OTIS activity shall be the property of OTIS and shall be delivered to OTIS upon termination of my employment or at any other time upon request.

III. MISCELLANEOUS

- A. Nothing contained in this agreement shall be construed as impairing my right or the right of OTIS to terminate employment hereunder.
- B. My obligations under this agreement shall continue whether or not my employment with OTIS shall be terminated voluntarily or involuntarily, with or without cause.
- C. This agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of OTIS, its successors in business and upon me, my heirs, executors and administrators.
- D. This agreement replaces all previous agreements relating to the same or similar matters which I may have entered into with OTIS with respect to my present and any future period of employment by OTIS. This agreement may not be modified in any respect by any verbal statement, representation or agreement made by any other employee or OTIS, or by a written document signed by any employee of OTIS other than an officer thereof.
- E. The law of the State of Texas will govern the interpretation, validity and effect of this agreement without regard to the place of execution or the place of performance thereof.

This Agreement may not be considered as modified in any respect by any verbal statement made by any employee of the Company with the undersigned, or by any written document by an employee of the Company other than an officer thereof.

As used herein the term Company shall mean Halliburton Company, a Delaware Corporation, of Duncan, Oklahoma.

AND
COVENANT NOT TO COMPETE

The undersigned (hereinafter called the "Employee") is either presently employed or desires to be employed by Gearhart Industries, Inc., a Texas corporation domiciled in Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas (hereinafter called the "Company") and the Company is agreeable that the Employee be or continue to be employed, provided that the Employee will abide by the agreements and covenants below set forth.

By signing this Agreement, the Employee acknowledges his or her understanding of the following:

(1). All companies have information not generally known outside the company, called confidential information. All companies must conduct their business through their employees and consequently many employees must have access to confidential information. At times an employee himself or herself may generate confidential information as a part of his or her job;

(2). The phrase "confidential information" as used in this Agreement comprises any technical, economic, financial, marketing, or other information which is not, at the time of disclosure to the Employee, common knowledge among competitors or other persons who might like to possess such information or might find it useful and includes, without prejudice to the foregoing generality, any formula, pattern, device, knowhow, or compilation of information used by the Company that gives the Company an advantage over competitors who do not know or use it. Some examples include customer lists, items in research or development, methods of manufacture, scientific studies or analyses, details of training methods, new products, new uses for old products, reengineering technology, merchandising and selling techniques, and information on contracts and licenses, purchasing, accounting, long-range planning, financial plans and results, etc. This list is merely illustrative and the confidential information covered by this Agreement is not limited to such illustrations. Where the context requires or permits the word "Company" shall also mean and extend to and include the subsidiaries and affiliates of the Company and the phrase "confidential information" with reference to the Company shall mean, extend to and include the confidential information of the subsidiaries and affiliates of the Company; and

(3). The Company's confidential information represents the most important, valuable, and unique aspect of the Company's business, and it would be seriously damaged if the Employee released confidential information to others or departed and took with him or her confidential information for the purpose of himself or herself competing against the Company or disclosing such information to the Company's competitors, now existing or hereafter formed.

Accordingly, in consideration of TEN DOLLARS paid to the Employee by the Company and other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and the Company's agreement to employ or continue to employ him or her, the Employee agrees as follows:

1. Whether during or after his or her employment with the Company, the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly at any time or in any place, disclose to any others (excepting Company officers or employees having a need to know) or use in any way other than in connection with the business and affairs of the Company any confidential information originated or acquired by the Employee while employed by the Company. The Employee undertakes (i) not, without the authority of the Company, to remove from the premises of the Company any of the Company's records or other written materials (whether prepared by the Employee or others) or any copy thereof containing any confidential information and (ii) if so removed with authority, to keep such records or written materials or copies thereof safe and secure and to return all such to the Company on demand or when the purpose for which they have been removed is complete.

2. In the event that the Employee's employment with the Company is terminated for any reason, with or without cause, the Employee covenants that he shall not, either individually or as an agent or employee of any business enterprise with which he may have become associated or in which he may have an interest, directly or indirectly for himself or on behalf of any other person or business entity engage in any business venture or other undertaking which is competitive with the Company's business or operations. Provided, however, this covenant not to compete shall be limited to a territory consisting of the area contained within any circle of radius 100 miles having as its center any location at which the Company is then doing business and shall be effective only for the period of two years immediately following the date of the Employee's termination of employment.

3. The Employee understands and agrees that his or her violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement will constitute irreparable injury to the Company immediately authorizing the Company to enjoin the Employee or any person with which he or she may have become associated from further violations, in addition to all other rights and remedies to which the Company may have under law and equity, including recovery of damages from the Employee. The Employee further recognizes that such violations may also make him or her subject to prosecution under applicable criminal statutes and that in the event of the Company employing attorneys and successfully enforcing the covenants and agreements herein contained, the Employee shall be liable to pay the Company's reasonable attorneys' fees and related legal costs.

COVENANT AGAINST UNFAIR COMPETITION

The undersigned (hereinafter called the "Employee") is either presently employed or desires to be employed by Gearhart Industries, Inc., a Texas corporation domiciled in Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas (hereinafter called the "Company") and the Company is agreeable that the Employee be or continue to be employed, provided that the Employee will abide by the agreements and covenants below set forth.

By signing this Agreement, the Employee acknowledges his or her understanding of the following:

(1). All companies have information not generally known outside the company, called confidential information. All companies must conduct their business through their employees and consequently many employees must have access to confidential information. At times an employee himself or herself may generate confidential information as a part of his or her job;

(2). The phrase "confidential information" as used in this Agreement comprises any technical, economic, financial, marketing, or other information which is not, at the time of disclosure to the Employee, common knowledge among competitors of the Company or other persons who might like to possess such information or might find it useful and includes, without prejudice to the foregoing generality, any formula, pattern, device, knowhow, or compilation of information used by the Company that gives the Company an advantage over competitors or others who do not know or use it. Some examples include customer lists, credit information, items in research or development, methods of manufacture, scientific studies or analyses, details of training methods, new products or techniques, and information on contracts and licenses, purchasing, accounting, long-range planning, financial plans and results, etc. This list is merely illustrative and the confidential information covered by this Agreement is not limited to such illustrations. Where the context requires or permits the word "Company" shall also mean and extend to and include the subsidiaries and affiliates of the Company and the phrase "confidential information" with reference to the Company shall mean, extend to and include the confidential information of the subsidiaries and affiliates of the Company;

(3). The Employee, because of his or her position of trust and confidence in the Company has been or will be entrusted with confidential information of the Company. The Company's confidential information represents the most important, valuable, and unique aspect of the Company's business, and it would be seriously damaged if the Employee released confidential information to others or departed and took with him or her confidential information for the purpose of himself or herself competing against the Company or disclosing such information to the Company's competitors, now existing or hereafter formed.

Accordingly, in consideration of TEN DOLLARS paid to the Employee by the Company and other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and the Company's agreement to employ or continue to employ him or her, the Employee agrees as follows:

1. Whether during or after his or her employment with the Company, and however terminated, the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly at any time or in any place, disclose to any others (excepting Company officers or employees having a need to know) or use in any way other than in connection with the business and affairs of the Company any confidential information originated or acquired by the Employee while employed by the Company. The Employee undertakes (i) not, without the authority of the Company, to remove from the premises of the Company any of the Company's records or other written materials (whether prepared by the Employee or others) or any copy thereof containing any confidential information and (ii) if so removed with authority, to keep such records or written materials or copies thereof safe and secure and to return all such to the Company on demand or when the purpose for which they have been removed is complete.

2. The Employee recognizes that the Company carries on business at numerous locations situated throughout the United States of America, and elsewhere, and that in the course of employment he or she shall or may have close contact with the Company's customers and obtain information relating to such customers which is the Company's confidential information. In order to protect the Company against disclosure of the Company's confidential information, and to shield the Employee from pressure to use or disclose the Company's confidential information, and permit third parties to compete unfairly against the Company, in the event that the Employee's employment with the Company is terminated for any reason, with or without cause, the Employee covenants that if he or she shall become interested in any business enterprise which is in competition with the business or operations of the Company, whether as agent, consultant, employee, shareholder, partner or otherwise, howsoever, he or she shall not solicit or approach or otherwise directly or indirectly contact or be associated in any respect with any person who is at the time of such termination or has at any time during the period of one year immediately prior to such termination been a customer of the Company; and for the purpose hereof it is expressly declared that a person who is or has been a customer of the Company shall include any individual, firm or corporation and any person who is for the time being an agent, consultant, employee, shareholder or partner of thereof. Provided, however, this covenant not to compete shall be limited to a territory consisting of the area contained within any circle of radius 100 miles having as its center any location at which the Company is then doing business and where the Employee is at the time of such termination or has at any time during the period of one year prior to such termination been employed by the Company, and shall be effective only for the period of two years immediately following the date of the Employee's termination of employment.

3. In the event that the Employee should find the limitation imposed by the provisions of Clause 2 of this Agreement a serious handicap to him or her in securing further employment, the Employee agrees and undertakes that he or she will make written request to the Company for a waiver of designated limitations before accepting employment or otherwise becoming associated or interested in any business in conflict with the provisions of Clause 2 of this Agreement or any of them, such request to include the name and address of the organization with which he or she seeks employment or to become interested or associated, as the case might be, and his or her intended location, position and duties. A waiver, unqualified or upon stated conditions, may be granted by the Company in its discretion and shall not be unreasonably withheld and request for such a waiver subsequently granted shall be deemed to be, and the Employee accepts that it shall be, agreement by the Employee that the whole provisions of this Agreement shall remain in effect and binding upon the Employee except to the extent specifically waived by the Company. The refusal or failure of the Company to grant a waiver, or to grant an unqualified waiver, shall not give the Employee any right or cause of action nor shall it be construed as a breach of this Agreement.

DOMESTIC FIELD SERVICES

4. Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Agreement, the Employee shall at all times observe and comply with the provisions of the Company's Policy Manual(s) as from time to time in effect including, without limitation, those relating to conflicts of interest, and shall not be engaged or be otherwise interested in any other business activity whether or not such business activity is pursued for profit or other pecuniary advantage. However, such restriction shall not be construed as preventing the Employee from making investments in any business enterprise so long as the Employee will not be required to render personal services to any such business enterprise and so long as not contrary to the provisions of the Company's Policy Manual(s).

5. The Employee acknowledges that the solicitation or encouragement by third parties of employees of the Company to leave such employment is detrimental to the interests of the Company and the Employee covenants that during the period of two years immediately following the date of the Employee's termination of employment, regardless of the reason for such termination and whether with or without cause, he or she shall not solicit or encourage any employee of the Company to leave such employment.

6. The Employee understands and agrees that his or her violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement will constitute irreparable injury to the Company immediately authorizing the Company to enjoin the Employee or any person with which he or she may have become associated from further violations, in addition to all other rights and remedies to which the Company may have under law and equity, including recovery of damages from the Employee. The Employee further recognizes that such violations may also make him or her subject to prosecution under applicable criminal laws and that in the event of the Company employing attorneys and successfully enforcing the covenants and agreements herein contained, the Employee shall be liable to pay the Company's reasonable attorneys' fees and related legal costs.

7. Employment or continued employment of the Employee by the Company, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the Company, may be terminated at the will of the Company, with or without cause, and nothing contained in this Agreement, the Company's Policy Manual(s) or other statements of policy, rules or regulations, published or unpublished shall be deemed to give rise to any implied agreement to the contrary.

8. The Employee agrees that this Agreement shall continue to be binding and controlling in the event of assignment thereof by the Company or upon acquisition of it in any other manner by the Company's successor, if any.

9. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be void by any court of competent jurisdiction, such determination shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement and such other provisions shall remain in full force and effect. If any provision of this Agreement is capable of two constructions, one which would render the provision void and one which would render the provision valid, the provision shall be interpreted in the manner which would render it valid. This Agreement, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing at the time hereof by the Company, supersedes all existing agreements between the Employee and the Company relating to the Employee's employment which are hereby cancelled and of no further effect, and this Agreement shall be enforced and interpreted under the laws of the jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought.

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

FORM B

The undersigned (hereinafter called the "Employee") is either presently employed or desires to be employed by Gearhart Industries, Inc., a Texas corporation domiciled in Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas (hereinafter called the "Company") and the Company is agreeable that the Employee be or continue to be employed, provided that the Employee will abide by the agreements and covenants below set forth.

By signing this Agreement, the Employee acknowledges his or her understanding of the following:

(1). All companies have information not generally known outside the company, called confidential information. All companies must conduct their business through their employees and consequently many employees must have access to confidential information. At times an employee himself or herself may generate confidential information as a part of his or her job;

(2). The phrase "confidential information" as used in this Agreement comprises any technical, economic, financial, marketing, or other information which is not, at the time of disclosure to the Employee, common knowledge among competitors of the Company or other persons who might like to possess such information or might find it useful and includes, without prejudice to the foregoing generality, any formula, pattern, device, knowhow, or compilation of information used by the Company that gives the Company an advantage over competitors or others who do not know or use it. Some examples include customer lists, credit information, items in research or development, methods of manufacture, scientific studies or analyses, details of training methods, new products or techniques, and information on contracts and licenses, purchasing, accounting, long-range planning, financial plans and results, etc. This list is merely illustrative and the confidential information covered by this Agreement is not limited to such illustrations. Where the context requires or permits the word "Company" shall also mean and extend to and include the subsidiaries and affiliates of the Company and the phrase "confidential information" with reference to the Company shall mean, extend to and include the confidential information of the subsidiaries and affiliates of the Company;

(3). The Employee, because of his or her position of trust and confidence in the Company has been or will be entrusted with confidential information of the Company. The Company's confidential information represents the most important, valuable, and unique aspect of the Company's business, and it would be seriously damaged if the Employee released confidential information to others or departed and took with him or her confidential information for the purpose of himself or herself competing against the Company or disclosing such information to the Company's competitors, now existing or hereafter formed.

Accordingly, in consideration of TEN DOLLARS paid to the Employee by the Company and other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and the Company's agreement to employ or continue to employ him or her, the Employee agrees as follows:

1. Whether during or after his or her employment with the Company, and however terminated, the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly at any time or in any place, disclose to any others (excepting Company officers or employees having a need to know) or use in any way other than in connection with the business and affairs of the Company any confidential information originated or acquired by the Employee while employed by the Company. The Employee undertakes (i) not, without the authority of the Company, to remove from the premises of the Company any of the Company's records or other written materials (whether prepared by the Employee or others) or any copy thereof containing any confidential information and (ii) if so removed with authority, to keep such records or written materials or copies thereof safe and secure and to return all such to the Company on demand or when the purpose for which they have been removed is complete.

2. The Employee recognizes that the Company carries on business at numerous locations situated throughout the United States of America, and elsewhere, and that in the course of employment he or she shall or may have close contact with the Company's customers and obtain information relating to such customers which is the Company's confidential information and that employment or association with or other interest in the business of a competitor of the Company might or would, even in good faith, place him or her in a position in which the Company's confidential information could or might be disclosed or used and in which he or she may be exposed to pressure from such competitors to disclose or use the Company's confidential information. In order to protect the Company against disclosure of the Company's confidential information, and to shield the Employee from pressure to use or disclose the Company's confidential information, in the event that the Employee's employment with the Company is terminated for any reason, with or without cause, the Employee covenants that he or she shall not, either individually or as an agent or employee of any business enterprise with which he or she may have become associated or in which he or she may have an interest, directly or indirectly for himself or herself or on behalf of any other person or business entity, engage in the business or technical area or areas relating to the type or types of work the Employee shall have been engaged in for the Company of any business venture or other undertaking which is competitive with the Company's business or operations. Provided, however, this covenant not to compete shall be limited to a territory consisting of the area contained within any circle of radius 100 miles having as its center any location at which the Company is then doing business and shall be effective only for the period of two years immediately following the date of the Employee's termination of employment.

3. In the event that the Employee should find the limitation imposed by the provisions of Clause 2 of this Agreement a serious handicap to him or her in securing further employment, the Employee agrees and undertakes that he or she will make written request to the Company for a waiver of designated limitations before accepting employment or otherwise becoming associated or interested in any business in conflict with the provisions of Clause 2 of this Agreement or any of them, such request to include the name and address of the organization with which he or she seeks employment or to become interested or associated, as the case might be, and his or her intended location, position and duties. A waiver, unqualified or upon stated conditions, may be granted by the Company in its discretion and shall not be unreasonably withheld and request for such a waiver subsequently granted shall be deemed to be, and the Employee accepts that it shall be, agreement by the Employee that the whole provisions of this Agreement shall remain in effect and binding upon the Employee except to the extent specifically waived by the Company. The refusal or failure of the Company to grant a waiver, or to grant an unqualified waiver, shall not give the Employee any right or cause of action nor shall it be construed as a breach of this Agreement.

4. Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Agreement, the Employee shall at all times observe and comply with the provisions of the Company's Policy Manual(s) as from time to time in effect including, without limitation, those relating to conflicts of interest, and shall not be engaged or be otherwise interested in any other business activity whether or not such business activity is pursued for profit or other pecuniary advantage. However, such restriction shall not be construed as preventing the Employee from making investments in any business enterprise so long as the Employee will not be required to render personal services to any such business enterprise and so long as not contrary to the provisions of the Company's Policy Manual(s).

5. The Employee understands and agrees that his or her violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement will constitute irreparable injury to the Company immediately authorizing the Company to enjoin the Employee or any person with which he or she may have become associated from further violations, in addition to all other rights and remedies to which the Company may have under law and equity, including recovery of damages from the Employee. The Employee further recognizes that such violations may also make him or her subject to prosecution under applicable criminal laws and that in the event of the Company employing attorneys and successfully enforcing the covenants and agreements herein contained, the Employee shall be liable to pay the Company's reasonable attorneys' fees and related legal costs.

6. The Employee accepts and agrees that employment or continued employment of the Employee by the Company, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the Company, may be terminated at the will of the Company, with or without cause, and nothing contained in this Agreement, the Company's Policy Manual(s) or other statements of policy, rules or regulations, published or unpublished shall be deemed to give rise to any implied agreement to the contrary; except as so expressly agreed in writing, no guarantee or promise of continued employment by the Company for any length or period of time at all is given, and termination for cause may include, without limitation, the conduct or performance of the Employee, the demand for the products and services of the Company, the labor requirements and/or other efficient organization of the Company, and the financial, economic, market or any other conditions or circumstances affecting the Company.

7. The Employee agrees that this Agreement shall continue to be binding and controlling in the event of assignment thereof by the Company or upon acquisition of it in any other manner by the Company's successor, if any.

8. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be void by any court of competent jurisdiction, such determination shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement and such other provisions shall remain in full force and effect. If any provision of this Agreement is capable of two constructions, one which would render the provision void and one which would render the provision valid, the provision shall be interpreted in the manner which would render it valid. This Agreement, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing at the time hereof by the Company, supersedes all existing agreements between the Employee and the Company relating to the Employee's employment which are hereby cancelled and of no further effect, and this Agreement shall be enforced and interpreted under the laws of the State of Texas.

EXECUTED in multiple counterparts (each of which shall be deemed an original) on this 5th day of June, 1984, in Houston, TX where the obligations contained in this Agreement are performable.
